PRESS RELEASE

Luxembourg, October 30, 2023

Luxempart is pleased to announce the acquisition of a substantial minority stake in alphacaps GmbH, a leading German full-service contract developer and manufacturer of nutritional supplements. The company offers its customers a wide range of formulations and formats based on deep know-how, state-of-the-art machinery and all the required certifications for the production of food supplements. Luxempart will support the company in their further growth plans.

Rudolf Ohnesorge, Member of the Group Executive Committee and responsible for the DACH activities of Luxempart, says: "We are very happy to team-up with alphacaps! The company is well positioned in the fast-growing nutritional supplements market by focusing on excellent product quality, fast adaptation to ever-changing market trends and a relentless focus on customer satisfaction. We are convinced of the further growth potential of the business and will provide our support by all means."
