

Luxempart S.A. (www.luxempart.lu) is a Luxembourg-based listed company with a net asset value exceeding EUR 1.5 billion. Founded in 1988, the group invests in listed and non-listed small to mid-cap companies in Europe, seeking to enhance the value of companies through an entrepreneurial and supportive approach. Luxempart's leading shareholders are entrepreneurial families.

As a professional investor, Luxempart focuses on two investment strategies:

- Significant long-term direct investments and co-investments in privately held and listed companies in France, DACH, Belgium and Northern Italy that are sourced and managed from its Luxembourg head office, and
- Fund of funds activity, with a focus on European and US venture capital, growth, small and mid-cap buyout as well as secondary funds

Due to the expansion of the direct investment activity with permanent capital of around EUR 1bn, Luxempart is recruiting an experienced:

Investment Manager (m/f) – (Ref.2021-1)

As an Investment Manager, you will contribute to the management and the development of the direct investment activity. You will have to take on responsibilities quickly, enjoy working in a small, transparent, and entrepreneurial team and partner with the Investment Directors of Luxempart. You will work from the offices in Leudelange, Luxembourg and will be travelling on regular basis to French and/or German markets..

Your mission

- Lead and execute due diligence,
- Attend meetings with management, Board members, other shareholders, and site visits
- In-depth market, company, and financial analysis as well as valuation of investment targets, business case and return simulations
- Liaise with external experts
- Prepare investment proposals for decision taking
- Monitoring of, and regular reporting on, portfolio companies
- Prepare for and attend shareholders' meetings of portfolio companies
- Prepare and execute exits from portfolio companies
- Develop best financial practice for portfolio companies
- Coach, develop and mentor other junior members of the team.

Your qualifications

- University degree in economics, business administration or finance, possibly combined with engineering degree
- 7+ years' experience within an investment company, investing in private equity
- An additional background in corporate finance/ M&A, strategy consulting or similar, possibly with previous experience in a Big Four Accounting firm would be an asset
- Strong financial analysis, modelling and valuation skills and attention to detail
- Ability to apply sound business judgement and an analytical, pragmatic, and creative approach to problem solving
- Ability to plan and prioritise effectively, strong project/process management skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Technically proficient (advanced) in Excel, Word, Power Point essential
- Fluent in English and German and/or French would be an advantage.

Luxempart's offer

- A challenging and rewarding role in a dynamic and professional business environment
- Stable, entrepreneurial shareholder basis who seeks to build on a long-term relationship with its team members
- Competitive remuneration package, including a significant performance-based element
- Diversified and international work experience
- Team spirit
- Great working environment with ample opportunities for personal and professional career development.

Apply now by sending your resume to celine.campi-blain@luxempart.lu