PRESS RELEASE

Luxempart finalises its investment in Sogetrel

Luxembourg, February 2, 2021

As announced on November 24th, 2020, the Management of Sogetrel together with a consortium of investors led by Andera Partners and composed of Luxempart, Capza, BNP Développement and IDIA Capital Investissement, closed the acquisition of Sogetrel from Latour Capital. The € 40 million commitment of Luxempart has been partially invested, the remaining amount being reserved for possible future capital increases. The company intends to expand its leadership in the digital infrastructure services business in France.

About Sogetrel

Created in 1985, Sogetrel is an independent French mid cap company which, in more than 35 years of activity, has become a national and recognised player in the telecom, IP security and digital solutions market.

With a network of more than 100 sites in France, Switzerland and Belgium, Sogetrel's actual customers include major operators, public and private contractors as well as local authorities. With nearly 5,000 employees, Sogetrel has enjoyed sustained growth since its creation. In 2020, the company might achieve a turnover of 760 million euros.
