INVESTMENT FUNDS – INTERN (M / F)

As an Investment Fund intern, you would be supporting the team on both the sourcing and analysis of new funds commitments and co-investments, as well as ongoing analysis and reporting of existing investments. The Investment Funds activity has a strong driven research process which looks in-depth at private equity funds, their strategy, geographies and competitors.

Working in a small, transparent and entrepreneurial team, with a flat organisation structure, you would be expected to be self-motivated and develop your knowledge of the investment process quickly. You will also participate to several day to day important tasks and be encouraged to be independent.

YOUR MISSION

- Collect, organise and analyse data on the current fund portfolio and contribute to internal reporting activities;
- Feed Luxempart proprietary monitoring tools and contribute to fund assessments;
- Together with the Investment Funds team, contribute to the set-up and enhancement of Luxempart's proprietary data analytics models and dashboards (incl. fund & benchmark analytics by strategy, vintages and geographies);
- Participate to extensive funds due diligence and produce investment reports and presentations for the decision-making process.

YOUR PROFILE

- Outstanding academic records from a leading Finance, Business or Economics Master's program. CFA studies would be advantageous;
- Previous internship in private equity fund investments or fund controlling experience gained in Big 4, private equity houses, placement agents, family office or bank;
- Strong financial and analytical skills;
- Genuine interest in private equity funds;

- Knowledge of fund and company's financial statements and forecasting as well as different methods of company valuation;
- Knowledge of private equity fund KPIs computation and performance assessment;
- Basic knowledge of private equity fund legal documentation and limited partnerships agreement mechanics;
- Understanding of fund portfolio drivers: awareness of business models, strategies and competitive positioning;
- Numerate, excellent knowledge of Microsoft Excel; PowerPoint and ideally Power BI;
- Rigorous, flexible, precise, well organised, strong team player, excellent verbal and written communication skills, able to work independently and in an international environment; and
- Fluent in English & French.

LUXEMPART'S OFFER

- A challenging and rewarding role in a dynamic and professional business environment;
- Access to renowned Private Equity managers, as part of due diligence calls and physical meetings;
- Diversified and international work experience;
- Small and cohesive team allowing to rapidly take on responsibility;
- Direct assistance from team members;
- Great working environment with ample opportunities for personal and professional career development.

AVAILABILITY

Candidate should be available for a 6 months internship period and start in Q1 2022 (starting date is flexible).
